

YOU'RE INVITED!!

Travis County Voter Registration Celebration

"The future of the republic is in the hands of the American voter." - Dwight D. Eisenhower

Who?

We invite all interested student organizations, fraternity and sorority members, neighborhood association representatives, local business owners, civic and community organizations, houses of worship, high school administrators, government officials and our fantastic pool of voter registrar volunteers to come out and be a part of this important event designed to register eligible voters and bring our community together for a common good. Please help us spread the word. The deadline to register for the November 2007 elections is October 9th, 2007. Everyone counts in Travis County!

What?

Join us for a day of community outreach, entertainment and celebration. Our right to vote is the backbone of American democracy. Help your friends and neighbors get registered. Find out more about voter registration and elections here in Travis County. Celebrate your right to participate in a free and democratic society.

Why?

"Let us never forget that government is ourselves and not an alien power over us. The ultimate rulers of our democracy are not a President and senators and congressmen and government officials, but the voters of this country." - Franklin D. Roosevelt
